

From Farm to Shore

Chef Dewa's Balinese Rijsttafel

The Roundtree, Amagansett invites guests to experience an extraordinary new culinary chapter led by its Personal Chef-in-Residence, Dewa Wijaya. With more than two decades at the helm of the culinary program at the prestigious COMO Shambhala Estate in Bali, where he cooked for celebrities, dignitaries, and royalty, Chef Dewa is celebrated for his mastery of wellness-driven cuisine and his deep respect for ingredients and place.

At The Roundtree, Chef Dewa's menus pay homage to the bounty of the Hamptons, drawing from the region's farms, fishermen, and artisanal purveyors. Each dish is a reflection of the season, thoughtfully composed to highlight peak flavors and textures. Freshly caught fish from local waters, just-picked produce from nearby fields, and small-batch cheeses and grains are treated with a light, skillful hand—creating food that is both vibrant and nourishing.

While his cooking is deeply rooted in the rhythms of the Hamptons, Chef Dewa infuses subtle touches of his Balinese heritage, adding aromatic spices, delicate broths, and fragrant herbs that lend warmth and intrigue to the plate. His style is about balance, between flavor and nutrition, indulgence as well as restraint, familiarity and discovery.

Guests can enjoy multi-course seasonal dinners, wellness-focused menus tailored to individual preferences, or intimate alfresco meals under the Hamptons sky. For those curious about his roots, Chef Dewa will also offer his interpretation of the Balinese Rijsttafel, a convivial feast of shared small plates that celebrates the spirit of abundance—reimagined with the best local ingredients.

The Roundtree experience by Chef Dewa is more than dining; it's a celebration of place and season, elevated by the artistry of a chef who believes the best meals nourish both body and soul.
